

Angela McIver is a national leader and advocates for Fair Housing for all. Angela joined the Fair Housing Rights Center in Southeastern Pennsylvania as Chief Executive Officer in 2007. In 2016 and again in 2020, Angela became a member of the Pennsylvania Advisory Committee of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. Since 2018, she has served as a National Fair Housing Alliance board member. In 2019, Angela was designated a National Housing Fellow under the Strong Families Commission. Angela delivers housing commentary on Turning Life Corners on WPPM 106.5 FM radio. She appeared on many media platforms, including KYW News radio, WHYY-FM 90.9, WITF/WURD 900 AM, WWDB 96.5 FM, 6abc Action News, NBC10 Philadelphia, Praise 107.9 FM, PBS News Hour, Reveal, Radio One Reopening Philly Radio Video Event, Bike and Build, and CNN.

Angela has 30 years of experience and serves as a systems analyst by developing customized business solutions, institutional and organizational networking, community partnerships, coalitions affecting adults, youths, and disabled persons, and identifying social intersections and solutions. Currently, Angela's status as a Certified Trauma-Competent Professional is pending. Once obtained, she will implement a national Trauma for Fair Housing Advocates program.

Angela produced the two-time award-winning independent film Life Isn't Fair. In 2018, she created and released an independent docuseries entitled, Memoir of a Home: Meet the Brown Family that Revitalized Parkside Avenue, a short biography featuring residents and a historical account of their address and community. She is working on the second installment of Memoir of a Home: The Untold Story of Doctors Row and Gentrification in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

In 2014, Angela received the Willow Grove Branch of the NAACP Humanitarian Award for Community Service. In 2023, Angela became an honorary Philadelphia Metropolitan Board of Realist member, and she received the inaugural Dr. C. Delores Tucker SHeRose Award for ensuring equality and equity in housing from the National Congress of Black Women Philadelphia Chapter.

Angela earned a Bachelor of Science in Behavioral Science from Pennsylvania State University. Angela also earned a Master of Social Services and a Master of Law and Social Policy from Bryn Mawr College. In 2021, she completed training to become a national Standards for Excellence Licensed Consultant and PA Association of Nonprofits Consultant.

Angela enjoys family, friends, cooking, reading, and the arts.